Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a manuscript or document. The text is dense and covers the majority of the page, with some lines appearing to be part of a list or table. The script is cursive and characteristic of historical Arabic documents. There are two large circular marks at the top of the page, possibly from binding or scanning artifacts. The right edge of the page shows a vertical line, suggesting a margin or the edge of the document.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1801. It is a formal address, and it begins with the words "I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th inst."

where the premises are situated and such charges shall be deemed to be paid an additional rent. The Landlord may discontinue such services upon 30 days notice to the Tenant without in any way affecting the obligations of the parties hereto and the Landlord shall then permit the Tenant to be supplied with electric current and/or gas by any other person or corporation; the Landlord's wires, pipes or conduits may be used for such purposes. Refrigeration apparatus, if any, is installed solely for the Tenant's accommodation and the Landlord shall not be liable for any failure of refrigeration, leakage or damage caused by such equipment or for any reason whatsoever. Interruption, curtailment or cessation of any of such services shall not constitute a constructive eviction nor affect the obligations of the parties hereto. Should any Municipal, State or Federal Agency impose any tax upon the Landlord's receipts from the sale or resale of electrical energy or gas or telephone service to the Tenant, the Tenant's pro rata share of such tax shall be included in the bill of and paid by the Tenant to the Landlord.

FOURTEENTH. The Landlord shall be permitted to enter the apartment during reasonable hours to make such repairs, decorations, improvements, alterations or additions as the Landlord may consider necessary or desirable, and to inspect or exhibit the apartment to prospective lessees or purchasers of the building, for a period of four months prior to the end of the term, the Landlord shall have the right during reasonable hours to exhibit the apartment to prospective tenants. In the event that the Tenant shall have removed all or substantially all of the Tenant's property during the last month of the term, the Landlord may thereupon enter and redecorate the apartment without in any manner affecting the covenants and obligations herein contained. FIFTEENTH. If, prior to the commencement of the term, the Tenant shall file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or be adjudicated a bankrupt or make any general assignment for the benefit of creditors or otherwise, or take the benefit of any insolvency act, or if a receiver or trustee for the Tenant's property be appointed, or if this lease or the estate of the Tenant hereunder be transferred to or devolve upon any other person or corporation, by operation of law or otherwise, the Landlord may at the Landlord's option upon three days notice to the Tenant cancel this lease, and in that case neither the Tenant nor any person claiming under the Tenant shall be entitled to possession of the apartment, and the Landlord may retain as liquidated damages any installment of rent, security, deposit, or any moneys paid upon the execution of this lease.

SIXTEENTH. Upon default in the payment of any installment of rent; or upon default in performance of, or upon the breach of, any covenant, term or condition of this lease on the Tenant's part to be observed or performed; or if the apartment shall be deserted or vacated, or of which fact the Landlord's judgment shall be final; or if the Landlord's agents or assigns shall deem objectionable or improper any conduct on the part of the Tenant or the occupants of the apartment, or shall deem the Tenant, or the Tenant's family, visitors or licensees objectionable, and the Landlord has given to the Tenant three days notice of the Landlord's intention to terminate this lease and tendered to the Tenant the rent paid on account of the unexpired term demised; or if the Tenant shall file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or be by any Court adjudicated insolvent or a bankrupt, or placed in liquidation; or if a temporary or permanent receiver or trustee of the Tenant's property be appointed by any Court; or if the Tenant shall make a general assignment; or any execution or attachment shall be issued against the Tenant or any of the Tenant's property, whereupon the apartment shall be taken or occupied by someone other than the Tenant; or if the Tenant shall fail to move into or take possession of the apartment within 15 days after the commencement of the term of this lease, of which fact the Landlord's judgment shall be final; then and in any of such events, the Landlord may, without notice, re-enter the apartment by summary proceeding, or by action or proceeding or by force or otherwise and dispossess the Tenant or other occupants of the apartment, and remove their effects and baggage, hold, repossess and enjoy the apartment, and the Tenant hereby waives the service of notice of intention to re-enter or of the institution of legal proceedings for that purpose; and/or the Landlord may at his option upon 3 days notice in writing terminate this lease and this lease and the term thereof shall automatically cease and determine at the expiration of the said three days and the Tenant shall vacate the apartment and surrender the same to the Landlord.

SEVENTEENTH. In the event of such default, re-entry, and/or expiration, the rent shall become due thereupon and be paid up to the time of such re-entry and/or expiration, together with such expenses as the Landlord may incur for legal disbursements, attorneys fees, brokerage and for putting the apartment in good order or for preparing same for re-rental; the Landlord may re-let the apartment, either in the name of the Landlord or otherwise for the balance of the term or for a longer period of time; and/or the Tenant or the Tenant's representatives shall also remain liable for and pay to the Landlord as liquidated damages for the Tenant's failure to observe and perform said Tenant's covenants herein contained, the equivalent of the amount of all the rent hereby covenanted to be paid, less the rental of re-letting, if any, collected by the Landlord during the period which would have constituted the balance of the term of this lease; such liquidated damages shall be paid by the Tenant in monthly installments, upon statements rendered by the Landlord, and any rent brought to collect such damages shall not prejudice in any way the Landlord's rights to collect or bring suit for such damages as may be payable for any breach or threatened breach by the Tenant of any of the covenants hereof; the Landlord shall have the right of injunction, and the right to any remedy at law or in equity, as if no provision was made herein for re-entry, summary proceedings, and other remedies and the mention herein of any particular remedy shall not preclude the Landlord from any other remedy at law or in equity. The Tenant hereby waives any and all rights of redemption granted by any present or future laws in the event of the Tenant being evicted or disposed of for any cause or of the Landlord obtaining the premises by reason of a default by the Tenant of any of the covenants of this lease; the Tenant hereby waives the right to have any issue arising out of or under the covenants and conditions of this lease tried by a jury.

EIGHTH. If the Landlord shall pay, or be compelled to pay a sum of money, or do any act that requires the payment of money, due to the failure of the Tenant to keep or observe or perform any or all of the covenants herein contained, to be observed and performed by the Tenant, then, and in such event, the sum or sums so paid by the Landlord, together with all interest, costs, damages, and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be considered additional rent and shall be added to the rent next becoming due in the month succeeding such payment and shall be collected at such time.

NINTH. No representations or promises with respect to the apartment have been made by the Landlord or the Landlord's agents other than those contained herein. The assumption of occupancy by the Tenant shall be conclusive evidence that the apartment and the building of which it is a part were in good and satisfactory condition at such time.

TENTH. In the event the apartment is not ready for occupancy at the time set herein for the commencement of the term by reason of the making of any alteration, improvement, decorations or repairs to the apartment or the building of which it is a part, or because of the holding over of any Tenant or Tenants, or if for any other reason the Landlord shall be unable to give possession to the Tenant, this lease shall remain in full force and effect but the Tenant shall not be required to pay rent until the apartment is ready for occupancy; the Landlord shall not be liable for the failure to give possession on said date and the term of this lease shall not be extended or deemed to be extended thereby.

TWENTY-FIRST. The failure of the Landlord to insure in any one or more instances upon a strict performance of any of the covenants, conditions or options in this lease, or to exercise any of the options herein conferred, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment for the future of any of such covenants, conditions or options, but the same shall continue to remain in full force and effect. No provision of this lease shall be waived, modified or altered, unless it be in writing duly executed by the Landlord; the receipt by the Landlord of rent with knowledge of a breach of any covenant of this lease, or the failure of the Landlord to enforce any of the Rules and Regulations herein, or hereafter adopted against the Tenant and/or any other tenant of the building shall not be deemed a waiver of any of the covenants herein or of said Rules and Regulations. If the Landlord waives or obtains redress for any violation of the covenants herein or of any of the said Rules and Regulations, such waiver or redress shall not prevent any subsequent act from having the same force and effect as an original violation. In the event the Tenant shall at any time desire the Landlord to submit the apartment for the Tenant's account, the Landlord having given consent, the Landlord or the Landlord's agents may accept the Tenant's keys for that purpose without affecting the Tenant's obligations under this lease, and the Landlord shall be exempt of all liability for loss of any of the Tenant's property or the occurrence of any other event in connection therewith. In no event shall the delivery of keys to any employee of the Landlord or of the Landlord's agents operate as a surrender of the apartment.

TWENTY-SECOND. The Tenant has this day deposited with the Landlord the sum of $ 100.00 and faithfully carried out all of said terms, covenants, and conditions on Tenant's part to be performed. In the event of a default by the Tenant, the Landlord shall have the right to transfer the security to the vendee for the benefit of the Tenant and the Landlord shall be considered released from all liability for the return of such security; and the Tenant agrees to look to the new Landlord solely for the return of the said security, and it is agreed that this shall apply to every transfer or assignment made of the security to a new Landlord.

hereinafter referred to as the Landlord, and

hereinafter referred to as the Tenant

Witnesseth: That the Landlord hereby leases to the Tenant and the Tenant hereby hires from the Landlord, the apartment known as Apartment B 2 on the 3rd floor in the building known as 418 East Nine St. in the Borough of Manhattan City of New York for the term of one year commencing the 1st day of December 1949 and ending the 31st day of December 1950, unless sooner terminated as hereinafter provided, at the annual rent of $ 1.200 payable in equal monthly instalments in advance on the 1st day of each month during said term.

The parties hereto, for themselves, their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, hereby covenant as follows:

FIRST. The Tenant shall pay the rent as stipulated above.

SECOND. The demised premises shall be used and occupied by the Tenant and the members of the immediate family of the Tenant only, as a strictly private dwelling apartment and for no other purpose.

THIRD. The Tenant and the Tenant's heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, shall not assign, mortgage, pledge or encumber this lease, nor sublet, or use or permit others to use the apartment or any part thereof without first obtaining the prior written consent of the Landlord in each case. Such consent may be granted upon such terms or conditions as the Landlord may impose and shall in no way operate to waive this covenant as to subsequent assignees or to dispense with the necessity for specific prior consent to each and any assignment.

FOURTH. This lease is and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage or mortgages which may now or hereafter affect the real property of which the demised premises are a part and to all renewals and extensions thereof. The Tenant shall on demand execute any instrument the Landlord may request in confirmation of such subordination and the Landlord is hereby authorized as the attorney in fact of the Tenant to execute any such instrument for and on behalf of the Tenant.

FIFTH. If the building or any part thereof shall be condemned for any public use or purpose, this lease shall terminate from the date when the possession of the part so taken shall be required for such purpose, and the Tenant shall not be entitled to any part of the award; however, the rent shall be apportioned accordingly.

SIXTH. The Tenant shall take good care of the apartment and fixtures therein and shall at the Tenant's own cost and expense make, when needed, all repairs and decorations therein and thereon, whenever damage or injury to the same shall have resulted from misuse or neglect by the Tenant, Tenant's family, servants, employees, agents, visitors or licensees. The Tenant shall not drill into, drive nails, or deface in any manner any part of the building or permit the same to be done. All alterations or improvements made by the Tenant shall be made only with the prior written consent of the Landlord and at the sole expense of the Tenant and shall become the property of the Landlord and be surrendered with the apartment at the end of the term.

SEVENTH. The Tenant has read the Rules and Regulations hereto sub-joined and made a part hereof, and hereby agrees to abide by and conform to the same and to such further reasonable Rules and Regulations as the Landlord may from time to time make or adopt for the care, protection and government of the building, and the general comfort and welfare of its occupants. The Landlord shall not be liable to the Tenant for the violation of any of said Rules and Regulations, or the breach of any covenants in any lease by any other tenant in the building.

EIGHTH. The Tenant shall promptly comply with any and all laws, ordinances, orders and regulations of any and all municipal, county, state and federal authorities, boards, commissions and other governmental agencies with respect to the demised premises or the use or occupation thereof; and shall not do or permit to be done, any act or thing upon said premises which might subject the Landlord to any liability or responsibility for injury to any person or persons or to any property by reason of any business or operation being conducted on said premises.

NINTH. The Tenant shall comply with all rules, regulations, orders or requirements of the New York Board of Fire Underwriters or any other similar body and shall not do or permit anything to be done in or upon the demised premises which shall increase the rate of fire insurance on the building of which the said premises form a part or on the property located therein. If by reason of the use of the premises by the Tenant the rates of insurance against loss by fire are increased, the Tenant agrees to pay as additional rent any excess premiums caused thereby, such additional rent to become due immediately upon effecting the insurance by the Landlord and payable with the next succeeding instalment of rent.

TENTH. If the building shall be damaged by fire or other cause without the fault or neglect of the Tenant, Tenant's family, servants, employees, agents, visitors or licensees, the damages shall be repaired as soon as reasonably convenient by and at the expense of the Landlord, and no claim for compensation shall be made by reason of inconvenience or annoyance arising from the necessity of repairing any portion of the building. But if the building be so damaged that the Landlord shall decide not to rebuild the same, or if the building be so damaged that the Landlord shall decide to demolish or rebuild it, then or in any of such events the Landlord may at the Landlord's option, give the Tenant a notice in writing of such decision, and the terms of this lease shall expire upon the third day after such notice is given and the Tenant shall vacate and surrender the apartment to the Landlord.

ELEVENTH. The Landlord shall not be liable for any injury or damage to persons or property caused by or resulting from steam, electricity, gas, water, rain, ice or snow, falling plaster, or any latent defect in the building, or from any injury or damage resulting or arising from any other cause or happening whatsoever, unless such injury or damage be caused by or be due to the negligence of the Landlord or the Landlord's agents, servants or employees; nor shall the Landlord or Landlord's agents be liable for any such damage caused by other tenants or persons in said building. The Landlord shall not be liable for loss of property by theft or otherwise. Should any windows of the demised premises become closed or darkened for any reason, the Landlord shall not be liable for any damage that the Tenant may sustain thereby, and the Tenant shall not be entitled to any compensation or abatement of rent or release from any of the obligations of this lease caused by such closing or darkening. The presence of bugs, vermin or insects, if any, shall not constitute a constructive eviction. If the Landlord shall furnish for the use of the Tenant any storeroom, laundry or any other facility in the building the same shall be furnished gratuitously and the Landlord shall not be liable for any injury to person or loss or damage to property occasioned during the use of same, whether due to the negligence of the Landlord or otherwise. The Tenant shall indemnify and save harmless the Landlord for and against any liability, or any injury to persons or property, resulting from the following acts or omissions on the part of the Tenant, the Tenant's family, employees, agents, visitors, or licensees during the term hereof; any negligence or improper conduct; any violation or non-performance of any covenant of this lease or the Rules and Regulations herein; the wrongful use of the demised premises. The Tenant shall give to the Landlord prompt notice in case of fire or accidents to or defects in, any part of the building or equipment and fixtures therein.

TWELFTH. The Landlord will furnish to the Tenant without additional charge, to the extent that the building is adapted, the following services, provided the Tenant is not in default under any of the provisions of this lease: elevator service; heat at reasonable hours during the cold season of the year; hot and cold water at all times. The interruption, curtailment, or cessation of any of such services shall not be deemed a constructive eviction, nor, unless caused by gross negligence of the Landlord, entitle the Tenant to any abatement or diminution of rent.

THIRTEENTH. If a telephone switchboard and a connection to the apartment is maintained by the Landlord, the Tenant may use such service at the same rates charged to the other tenants in the building. If electric current or gas be supplied by the Landlord, the Tenant shall purchase same at rates charged by any public service companies serving the section or locality.
